Lynette McCullough

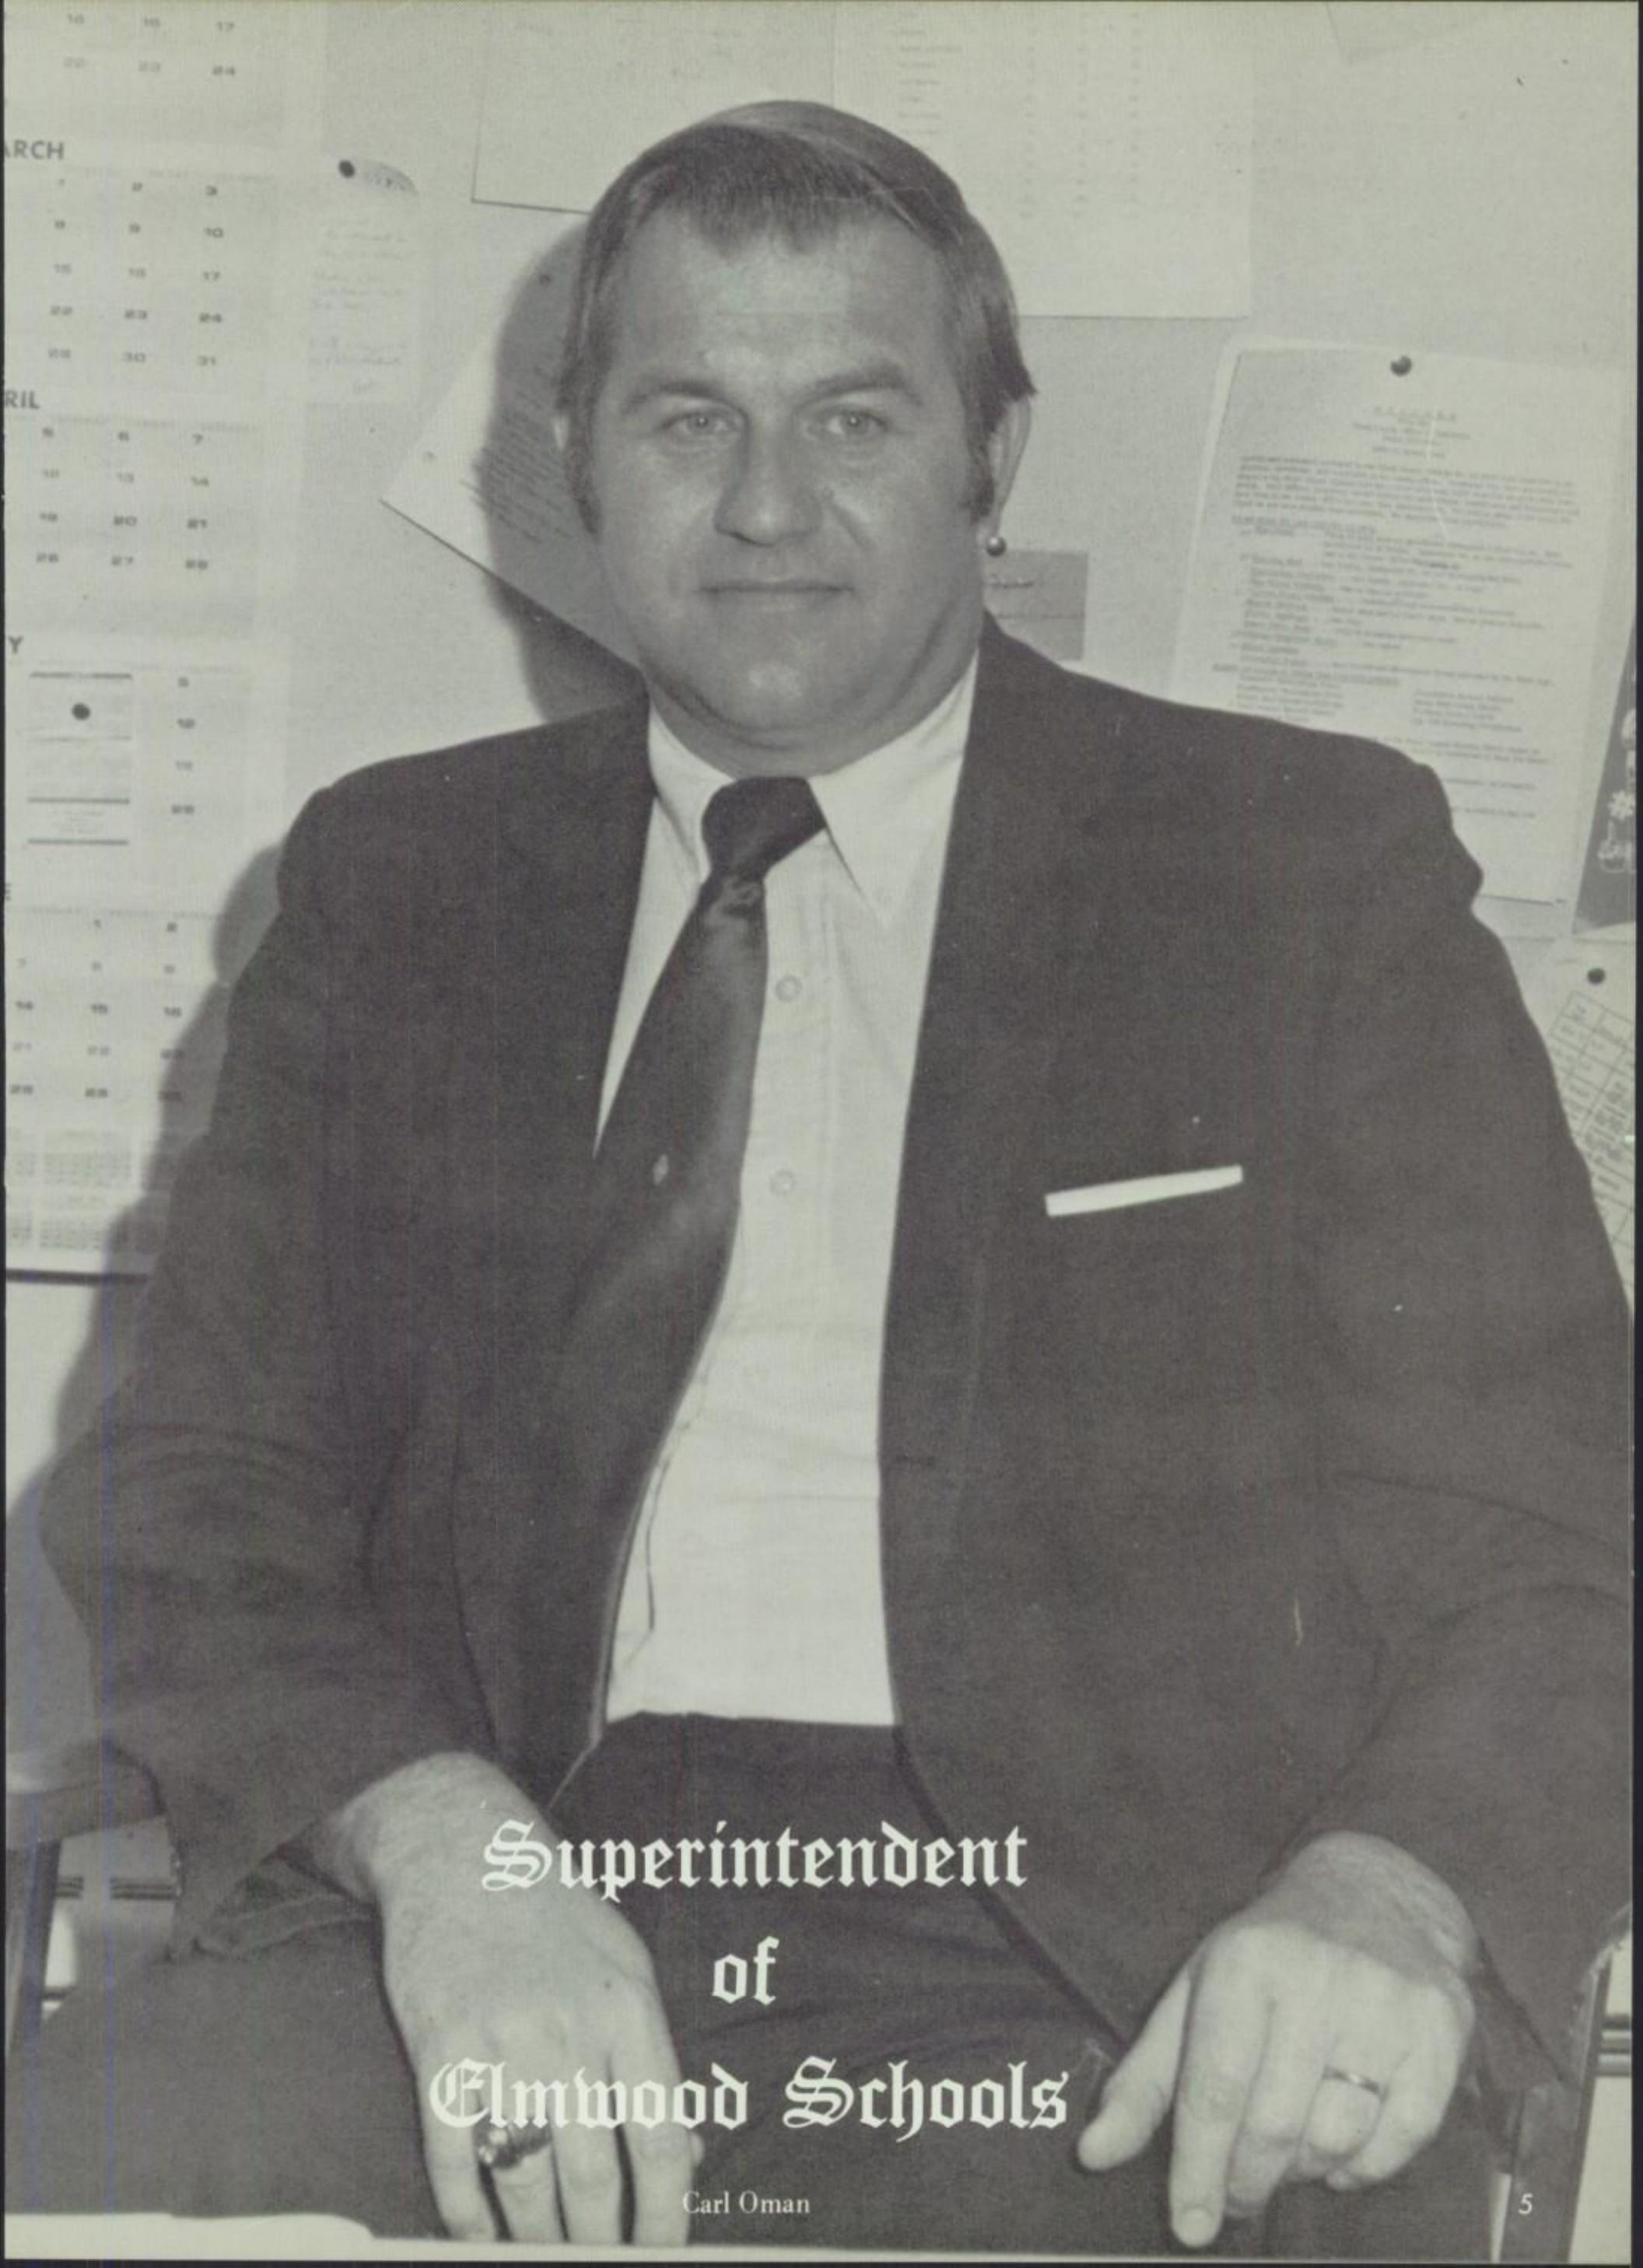

To Lynette McCullough, who has devoted her teaching life to the field of Home Economics, not just to the students, female and male, who have selected her course as a part of their high school years but to the mothers who have come to her at night that they might brush up on their skills in basic sewing and in tailoring; for her constant encouragement to those who entered their work in the 4-H contest at the Wood County Fair and these to the Ohio State Fair, and for her hours both in and out of the classroom working with those from Elmwood High School and other area high schools in the "Make It With Wool" contest, this edition of the 1974 Royale yearbook is warmly and gratefully dedicated.

Milton Bockbrader

This 1974 Royale would like to recognize Mr. Milton Bockbrader, retiring after 12½ years of service to Elmwood Schools.

The first year and a half Mr. Bockbrader drove school bus with all the loud voices and usual fights.

As high school custodian the past 11 years, Mr. Bockbrader dutifully performed his daily work along with the many, many extra tasks that people confronted him with day after day. Opening the school very early in the mornings, preparing for 50 students, 45 faculty and staff members, making sure there is heat or why there isn't any, keeping all the clocks at the same time for the daily schedule when lightning has struck the master clock, sweeping the rooms and picking up paper wads when we "missed the basket", etc. etc. The situations are endless describing many of Milt's numerous responsibilities, which were always handled very well.

Who else could put up with all this? Someone who is dependable, faithful, quiet, loyal, well-liked, and deserving of this Mr. Milt Bockbrader. We wish you a long and happy retirement!!

Remember? When

"Let me tell you 'bout the birds and the bees..."

"Beautiful Beulah Bell"

When do I get to kiss
Doug?

I love it! I love it!

Help me! I think I'm falling.

1974-'75 ATHLETIC HEADS

"Is fat all there is?"

Dance! Dance! I'll make you a star.

How do you turn it on?

EXAM ALL
In response to the seniors request for more privileges, the exam schedule was changed. Seniors that had a 3.0 average or higher in any class were not required to take the exam.

If the "3.0" senior requests to take the exam to help improve a grade, they were permitted to do so.

For those 3.0 seniors not taking the semester exam, they may average all major tests for the first semester and record that average as the semester exam grade (which will count as 20%).

The seniors final exam schedule for next semester has not been decided yet.

A BROKEN HEART—By Barbara A. King

A broken heart is hard to repair,
It takes time and love and lots of care.
A person with a broken heart may act very lonely and cold,
And it will take them awhile before they can again be bold.
They have lost the love that they had wanted
to share,
Sometimes in life it just doesn't seem fair.
It's hard for these people to start over again,
But they can try for a start with a little help from their friends.
Some try to cover their sorrow by acting
happy and gay,
But really inside it seems as though you're about to decay.
They may not feel like dating for a long time
after their heart has been broken.
Sometimes being alone for awhile and sorting their thoughts may help them more than the many words spoken.
Some people cannot cope with this terrible feeling,
So they stare at the walls and the floor and ceiling.
The only thing I can think of that may help, I will say,
Is to bow down on your knees, open your heart
to God, and pray
